

Business Update: Cyprus Fiduciary Services

International law and professional services group Cains can offer a Cypriot corporate services capability.

Cains is pleased to announce that it is able to provide a full range of incorporation, administrative and accounting services in respect of structures formed in Cyprus.

Cains Fiduciaries is committed to providing a commercial approach to the administration of client structures, a fast turnaround on all matters and a cost effective service for its clients. Personnel within the team work in close co-operation with lawyers from Cains (in the Isle of Man, London or Singapore as most appropriate to the client's location) to provide a seamless service, delivering a first class and in-depth understanding of the legal, regulatory and commercial aspects of a client's business and affairs.

The clients serviced by Cains Fiduciaries range from private companies to international property funds, from international businessmen and family offices to sovereign wealth funds participating in private equity structures. The value of assets under management and administration is well in excess of US$12.5 billion.

Cains Fiduciaries provides the full range of administration services including corporate secretarial, registrar and directorship services. In conjunction with the professionals at Cains and the experienced accountants at Cains Accounting Services, a truly integrated and high quality service is provided.

Many of Cains Fiduciaries' clients have structures which include Cypriot entities as well as companies incorporated in the Isle of Man and other jurisdictions. The ability to administer Cypriot entities will enable those clients and their advisers to benefit from Cains' levels of service on a cross-jurisdictional basis.
