

Who we are

Cains Corporate Services Limited (“CCSL”) is an Isle of Man corporate and trust service provider that is associated with Cains Advocates Limited, a full service independent law firm.

Made up of a team of highly experienced, reliable and responsive professionals, we work closely with Cains Advocates Limited to combine the expertise across both firms in order to provide our clients with seamless, integrated, high quality advice and solutions that are backed up by specialist legal advisors.

We pride ourselves in providing our clients with a commercial approach to the establishment and ongoing administration of client structures, as well as responsive, fast turnaround times expected by the global market.

We are committed to understanding our clients’ businesses and we focus on providing the highest level of personal service working efficiently and collaboratively with our clients.

CCSL is privately owned and is not therefore answerable to external stakeholders. As such, we are able to focus on providing our clients with a first class service that is both tailored and cost effective.

Our clients include financial institutions, global corporates, high net worth individuals and family offices and we represent a diverse portfolio of clients ranging from industries such as real estate, aviation, education, pharmaceuticals and many more.
